

I strongly support net neutrality backed by Title 2 oversight of ISPs.
Removing the protections in place will prove to be disastrous for everyone except the largest businesses, which certainly does not represent the will of the majority.